

Mr. Albert Dale Clary

Albert Dale Clary is a partner at Long Law Firm, L.L.P. based in Baton Rouge, and has been practicing since 1979. He is one of the few attorneys in the state of Louisiana who specializes in professional liability, primarily representing architects, engineers, and surveyors. He handles construction and commercial litigation, typically involving hundreds of thousands of documents and sophisticated document management issues.

Mr. Clary has spoken extensively to numerous construction and professional groups about legal issues unique to the industry and has testified before Louisiana legislative committees on similar topics. He is on the panel of Construction Arbitrators for the American Arbitration Association and is on the panel of construction mediators for Mediation Arbitration Professional Systems, Inc. (MAPS).
