

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

State of Louisiana

R. Kyle Ardoin
SECRETARY OF STATE

WHEREAS, the Louisiana State University Women's Basketball team is in the midst of a historic season; and

WHEREAS, the Tigers have dominated this season, averaging over 80 points per game with a 32-2 win-loss record, and are headed to the NCAA Final Four for the first time since 2008; and

WHEREAS, they are led by Louisiana's own Coach Kim Mulkey, along with an incredibly talented roster of players; and

WHEREAS, Alexis Morris and Angel Reese lead the team in scoring, earning both of them a spot as regional finalists on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association's 2023 NCAA Division I Coaches' All-America team; and

WHEREAS, Angel Reese has also been named to the All-America First Team by the Associated Press and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. She is also a finalist for the Katrina McClain Award and a semifinalist for the Naismith Player of the Year Award, and has set an SEC single season record with 32 double-doubles; and

WHEREAS, the entire LSU team and staff is worthy of appreciation for their passion, excellence, and teamwork in bringing positive recognition to the state of Louisiana.

NOW,
THEREFORE, I, Kyle Ardoin, by the authority vested in me as Secretary of State of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim Friday, March 31, 2023

LSU WOMEN'S BASKETBALL DAY

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of my Office to be affixed at the City of Baton Rouge on, March 28, 2023

Secretary of State
