INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. Trade names, trademarks and service marks can be reserved for 120 days by filing an Application for Reservation of Trade Name, Trademark or Service Mark and the requisite filing fee of $25 with the secretary of state.
- 2. The availability of a trade name can be preliminarily checked by calling the Secretary of State's Office; however, telephone trade name searches are preliminary checks only and should not be relied upon.
- 3. A trade name, trademark or service mark cannot deceptively or falsely suggest that the organization so denoted is of a charitable or nonprofit nature when the organization is in fact of a profit making nature.
- 4. Filing an Application for Name Reservation does not formally adopt the Trade Name, Trademark or Service Mark.
