ELECTORAL COLLEGE TO MEET AT STATE CAPITOL DECEMBER 17

BATON ROUGE, La.—Secretary of State Nancy Landry will host Louisiana’s Electoral College meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 17 at 11:30 a.m. in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol. Secretary Landry will administer the oaths of office to the eight electors of the Republican Party before they cast their official votes for president and vice president of the United States.

Individuals who wish to watch a live stream of the proceedings can do so by visiting www.legis.la.gov and clicking on the live streaming link.

The Electoral College, administered by the National Archives and Records Administration, is a process that began as part of the original design of the United States Constitution. The Founding Fathers established the Electoral College as a compromise between election of the president by Congress and election by a popular vote. The people of the United States vote for the electors who then vote for president.
